

Investment Climate Facility (ICR) Webinar on:
Not One Size Fits All: The Varying Needs of Social Enterprises and Inclusive Businesses

Speaker Profiles

Likumbi Kapihya, Hub Manager - Zambia, Social Enterprise Academy

Likumbi Kapihya is a social “intrapreneur” with a knack for matching local solutions for local problems with resources to help them scale. She is an Obama Foundation Africa Leader (2019) with nearly ten years of multi-sector experience spanning legislature, think-tanks, NGOs and consultancies on three continents, she is passionate about catalysing social and economic development in Africa. Her current position as Hub Manager of the Social Enterprise Academy at BongoHive, Zambia’s first innovation and technology hub, sees her support a wide range of entrepreneurs creating solutions to some of the most pressing problems in their communities.

Ngwing Kimani, Executive Director, B Lab East Africa

Ngwing is the Executive Director of B Lab East Africa. A not-for-profit organisation that supports, promotes and certifies for-profit companies using their business as a force for good. She serves on the Advisory Board of Laeteon Wealth Management Services Ltd. A firm she founded in 2009 to support individuals and businesses in achieving their financial and organisational goals. She is currently the Finance Lead on the Board of Value 4 Women; a global advisory firm that helps organizations advance gender inclusion.

Amma Sefa-Dedeh Lartey, Co-Founder, Social Enterprise Ghana

Amma is an entrepreneur who has spent the last 16 years supporting businesses across Africa to launch and grow. She is co-founder of Social Enterprise Ghana (SE Ghana), the association for organizations in the social enterprise sector in Ghana. SE Ghana supports its members to grow their businesses, works to increase funding for social enterprises, raises awareness about social enterprise and conducts research to inform policy and action. She also leads Social Enterprise Africa, a regional initiative to support the building of thriving national ecosystems for social enterprises. She is a board member and led the Africa region of Reach for Change - a Venture Philanthropist that runs accelerators, incubators and hubs for social enterprises in key growth markets including Ghana, Senegal, Ethiopia, Rwanda, Tanzania, DRC and Chad. Amma is also co-founder of MarketExpress, Ghana's largest online grocery supermarket and distribution company that enables SMEs in the FMCG space to grow. She is a Fellow of the Africa Leadership Initiative-West Africa and a member of the Aspen Global Leadership Network.

Khatuchi Khasandi – Wanjohi, Program Manager, Aspen Network of Development Entrepreneurs (ANDE) East Africa Chapter

In this capacity, Khatuchi provides oversight to all the chapter's Programs. She also oversees ANDE's activities in Tanzania and Uganda. Prior to joining ANDE, she worked with INGOs in both Kenya and Uganda. Khatuchi holds a Bachelor of Arts (Psychology & Sociology) and a Minor in Literature from Kenyatta University in Kenya, a certificate from the Executive Program in Social Impact Strategy at the University of Pennsylvania, USA and is currently pursuing a master's degree in Counselling Psychology from Kenyatta University. Outside of work she enjoys, travelling, jogging, interior decorating and theater art.